Adult Winter Reading Program

January 7 - March 1

For the first time Cedar Falls Public Library will be holding a winter reading program for adults! Grab a program and a reading card (available January 7th) from the table near the self checkout stations to get started. Drawings will be held once per week, so make sure you stop in often! Earn extra entries for prizes by filling out a bingo card featuring many of our services that we offer and earn extra minutes of reading by attending library programs. Enter for a chance to win a gift card to Community Main Street or Barnes and Noble just for doing what you already love. Sponsored by the Friends of the Cedar Falls Public Library.

Cultural Literacy: Special Event

Wednesday, January 23, 7:00-8:00 pm, Meeting Room

Cedar Falls Public Library will receive a Power of Libraries award for our Cultural Literacy Series later this spring. Celebrate this milestone with us! There will be a special presentation (topic to be determined) and refreshments!

*Cookie Cottage Creation Camp

Tuesday, January 22, 5:45-8:15 pm
Meeting Room (ages 13+)

Use expired gingerbread kits to create a new cookie domicile of your dreams. Team up to build the Tower of Sauron! Do you want to recreate Hogwarts in order to send young gingerwizards and gingerwitches to learn some magic? Come join us and build anything your heart desires. We will have fresh cookies and hot beverages for consumption during this drop-in event.
