

We Sang:

Pat-A-Cake

Pat-a-cake,
Pat-a-cake,
Baker's man,
Bake me a cake as fast
as you can,
Roll it,
Pat it,
Mark it with a "B",
And put it in the oven
for baby and me.

Taking Preschool Storytime Home

Babies

Try At Home:

Practice conversational skills with your child while they draw. Have them draw a picture of themselves when they were a baby. Talk to them about what they think they looked like or acted like when they were a baby. Ask what they think you acted/looked like or their siblings (if they have any). Talk to them about what they actually acted/looked like. It might be fun to look at old photos, too!

We Rhymed:

I am different from my head to my toes. I am different from my eyes to my nose. I come from a place that is far and wide. A place where we mostly smile instead of cry. I am very different as you can see. And I love myself and my history!

We Read:

- Littles and How They Grow by Kelly DiPucchio
- Shine Baby Shine by Leslie Staub
- Babies Can Sleep Anywhere by Lisa Wheeler

Literacy Tip:

Make reading a part of your nightly routine. Spending time reading together as a family strengthens your relationship with your child and helps nurture their love of reading.
