HOT OFF THE PRESS: KID LIBRARIAN INTERVIEW!

As Addi was creating her own Kid Librarian display, we asked her some questions, and here is her interview!

Question: What makes a good book to you?

Addi: If the title has the word “cool” in it, I like that. I also like it when the cover has pretty pictures on it, but I don’t always judge a book by the cover.

Question: How do you go about choosing what to read?

Addi: I first go to the baking aisle in the Youth Nonfiction section because I love to bake. I also love stories about real events.

Question: What parts of the job do you think you would like best about being a librarian or working at the library? Why?

Addi: I think putting the books back on the shelves would be the best because I like figuring out where they belong. I would also like to work with kids because they are all so different.

Question: Do you have anything at the library you think more people should know about?

Addi: People should check out the pet aisle in the Youth Nonfiction section more. They should also look at the fun games that are available to check out because I am able to play them with my five year old brother.

Question: If someone had never been to CFPL before, what would you tell them?

Addi: I would tell them there are new books to discover and to definitely check out the Youth Nonfiction section!

Thank you to Addi for doing this interview and all her hard work on her Kid Librarian display! Come into CFPL and check it out through the month of December!
