HOT OFF THE PRESS: KID LIBRARIAN INTERVIEW!

As Andrew was creating their own Kid Librarian display, we asked them some questions, and here is their interview!

Question: What makes a good book to you?

Andrew: I really like graphic novels. I also like a lot of pictures in books but with a lot of words too.

Question: How do you go about choosing what to read?

Andrew: If my friends read it, then I'll read it too. I will also read a book if other people tell me it's good!

Question: What parts of the job do you think you would like best about being a librarian or working at the library? Why?

Andrew: I think putting the books away would be the best because it would be fun to see all of the different covers of books. I also would like to see how many kids like the books!

Question: Do you have anything at the library you think more people should know about?

Andrew: I think people should know more about the books and the Graphic Novels section.

Question: If someone had never been to CFPL before, what would you tell them?

Andrew: I would tell them that the books are good. I would also tell them about how the marble run is pretty cool and playing Roblox on the computers is fun.

Thank you to Andrew for doing this interview and all their hard work on their Kid Librarian display! Come into CFPL and check it out through the month of January!

Have you ever wanted to be a librarian? Well, here is your chance! Kid Librarian at CFPL is where one lucky kid will be drawn every month and picked to be a librarian for an afternoon! They will get to make their very own book display of their own interests that will be up in the Youth department for a month. If you don't get picked one month, don't worry because you can apply again the next month! For kids ages 7 and up.

To participate, come into the Youth department and fill out an application!
