HOT OFF THE PRESS: KID LIBRARIAN INTERVIEW!

As Amelia was creating their own Kid Librarian display, we asked them some questions. Here is their interview!

Question: What makes a good book to you?

Amelia: When more than one big event happens in the book!

Question: How do you go about choosing what to read?

Amelia: I look up books on the library's catalog computers and also look at book suggestions!

Question: What parts of the job do you think you would like best about being a librarian or working at the library? Why?

Amelia: I think it would be cool to know most or all of the books in the building. It would be fun as well to push the book carts and put books away!

Question: Do you have anything at the library you think more people should know about?

Amelia: People should know that the library has books on almost every topic and that they should explore each floor of the library!

Question: If someone had never been to CFPL before, what would you tell them?

Amelia: They should start at the library catalog computers or read and look at the book section signs!

Thank you to Amelia for doing this interview and all their hard work on their Kid Librarian display! Come into CFPL and check it out through the month of March!

Have you ever wanted to be a librarian? Well, here is your chance! Kid Librarian at CFPL is where one lucky kid will be drawn every month and picked to be a librarian for an afternoon! They will get to make their very own book display of their own interests that will be up in the Youth department for a month. If you don't get picked one month, don't worry because you can apply again the next month! For kids ages 7 and up.

To participate, come into the Youth department and fill out an application!
