HOT OFF THE PRESS: KID LIBRARIAN INTERVIEW!

As Arlo was creating their own Kid Librarian display, we asked them some questions. Here is their interview!

Question: What makes a good book to you?

Arlo: I like action and mythical stuff. I sometimes judge a book by its cover but try not to all the time.

Question: How do you go about choosing what to read?

Arlo: I look through the library shelves and see what looks cool!

Question: What parts of the job do you think you would like best about being a librarian or working at the library? Why?

Arlo: I think I would like to put away returned books on their shelves. I would also like to drive the book carts!

Question: Do you have anything at the library you think more people should know about?

Arlo: I think more people should know about Wings of Fire, I've been looking for a new friend to talk about the series with!

Question: If someone had never been to CFPL before, what would you tell them?

Arlo: I would tell them to check out all the book options and also the fish tank in the Youth department!

Thank you to Arlo for doing this interview and all their hard work on their Kid Librarian display! Come into CFPL and check it out through the month of June!

Have you ever wanted to be a librarian? Well, here is your chance! Kid Librarian at CFPL is where one lucky kid will be drawn every month and picked to be a librarian for an afternoon! They will get to make their very own book display of their own interests that will be up in the Youth department for a month. If you don't get picked one month, don't worry because you can apply again the next month! For kids ages 7 and up.

To participate, come into the Youth department and fill out an application!
