HOT OFF THE PRESS: KID LIBRARIAN INTERVIEW!

As Abby was creating their own Kid Librarian display, we asked them some questions. Here is their interview!

Question: What makes a good book to you?

Abby: I really enjoy cliff hangers and intensity in a book. The book, Over and Out by Jenni L. Walsh, had all of that! Everyone should read that book. I also enjoy emotional books.

Question: How do you go about choosing what to read?

Abby: I usually read the back or inside of the cover of a book. I also ask my school librarian for suggestions.

Question: What parts of the job do you think you would like best about being a librarian or working at the library? Why?

Abby: I've read a lot, so I think I would like to recommend books to kids. I would also like to encourage kids not to give up on reading if it is hard and to keep practicing!

Question: Do you have anything at the library you think more people should know about?

Abby: Some kids choose to go to the computers right away when they get here. I would tell them to check out some of the books first and then go to the computers second.

Question: If someone had never been to CFPL before, what would you tell them?

Abby: If they are my age, I would tell them that there are really good books here, and they can find something easily right away that they will enjoy. If they are little kids, I would tell them to have a lot of fun with storytimes and the play area!

Thank you to Abby for doing this interview and all their hard work on their Kid Librarian display! Come into CFPL and check it out through the month of July!

Have you ever wanted to be a librarian? Well, here is your chance! Kid Librarian at CFPL is where one lucky kid will be drawn every month and picked to be a librarian for an afternoon! They will get to make their very own book display of their own interests that will be up in the Youth department for a month. If you don't get picked one month, don't worry because you can apply again the next month! For kids ages 7 and up.

To participate, come into the Youth department and fill out an application!
