HOT OFF THE PRESS: KID LIBRARIAN INTERVIEW!

As Malachi was creating their own Kid Librarian display, we asked them some questions. Here is their interview!

Question: What makes a good book to you?

Malachi: I like it when you learn about stuff as you read, such as hunting.

Question: How do you go about choosing what to read?

Malachi: When the cover looks like fun to read, and if it is colorful.

Question: What parts of the job do you think you would like best about being a librarian or working at the library? Why?

Malachi: I would like to help people check out their books and help them find good books. I would also like to push the book carts around.

Question: Do you have anything at the library you think more people should know about?

Malachi: I think more people should come to the library to read their books.

Question: If someone had never been to CFPL before, what would you tell them?

Malachi: They should know it is a good library!

Thank you to Malachi for doing this interview and for all their hard work on their Kid Librarian display! Come into CFPL and check it out through the month of September!

Have you ever wanted to be a librarian? Well, here is your chance! Kid Librarian at CFPL is where one lucky kid will be drawn every month and picked to be a librarian for an afternoon! They will get to make their very own book display of their own interests that will be up in the Youth department for a month. If you don't get picked one month, don't worry because you can apply again the next month! For kids ages 7 and up.

To participate, come into the Youth department and fill out an application!
