HOT OFF THE PRESS: KID LIBRARIAN INTERVIEW!

As Emma was creating their own Kid Librarian display, we asked them some questions. Here is their interview!

Question: What makes a good book to you?

Emma: I used to struggle finding books that I liked, and I was getting bored. I like books I can relate to!

Question: Do you have anything at the library you think more people should know about?

Emma: The Who Was/Is series section in the Youth Biographies! I learned new vocab and about new people and experiences while reading them.

Question: What parts of the job do you think you would like best about being a librarian or working at the library? Why?

Emma: I think recommending books, sharing what I enjoy, and sharing my passion with others would be cool. It wouldn't be just the people getting something out of it, but me, too.

Question: What are your thoughts on our library's role in our community?

Emma: The library brings our community together. People don't realize how often the library is used. I used to come to storytime when I was younger, and it brought people together.

Question: What part of working at the library do you think would be the hardest?

Emma: I think it would be hard if someone asked for a super-specific book recommendation and you have no idea!

Thank you to Emma for doing this interview and for all their hard work on their Kid Librarian display! Come into CFPL and check it out through the month of February!
